Insured Persons

- Persons who have booked a trip together with you. This does not apply if more than 7 people book a trip together.
- Your dependants and the dependants of your spouse or partner. This includes your spouse or partner; children, adopted children, stepchildren, foster children; parents, adoptive parents, stepparents, foster parents, grandparents, parents-in-law; siblings, grandchildren, children-in-law; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law; aunts, uncles, nephews and nieces.
- Those who look after your underage children or relatives in need of care and are not travelling with you.
- Accompanying persons on group trips, if agreed on separately.

Notes

- Insurance cover applies to an insured arrangement.
An arrangement is understood to include all booked travel services, i.e. the journey to and from the destination (e.g. by air or rail), the accommodation (e.g. rented flat) as well as additional services booked before the trip (e.g. meals, wellness, sports courses).
The total sum of the booked travel services for the persons named in the insurance policy or the group of persons specified in the insurance policy constitutes the arrangement price to be insured.
- The insurance can be taken out by persons up to the age of 74 years.
- Persons who permanently reside in Germany are not insurable.
- Regarding the Travel Cancellation Insurance, insurance cover commences when the insurance is taken out; regarding the Travel Curtailment Insurance, when the insured person enters the insured property; regarding the Travel Health Insurance, when the insured person crosses the border into Germany; regarding all other insurance policies, when the insured person leaves their home.
- Regarding the Travel Cancellation Insurance, the end of the insurance cover is deemed to be the entry into the booked and insured object or the occurrence of an insured event or the cancellation of the trip; regarding all other insurance policies, the time stated in the insurance policy, at the latest after 31 days.
- Extensions within the maximum insurance period are possible with the consent of the HanseMerkur.
